

Rhode Island Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP)

Parenting is full of challenges.
Affordable child care shouldn't be one of them.

The Rhode Island Child Care Assistance Program (CCAP) helps eligible families pay for child care. With CCAP benefits, you can focus on your job, training, or education without worrying about the cost of care for your young child.

Who Can Get CCAP?

You may qualify for CCAP if you:

- Have a child who is a U.S. citizen or legal resident, and is under age 13 AND
- Work at least 20 hours each week and meet annual income guidelines OR
- You meet income requirements and are enrolled in an associate or bachelor's degree program at:
 - Community College of Rhode Island (CCRI)
 - Rhode Island College (RIC)
 - University of Rhode Island (URI)
- You may also be eligible if you take part in certain State of Rhode Island work training or apprenticeship programs.
- Families eligible for CCAP must not exceed annual household income limits:
 - Up to $39,440 for a single parent with one child
 - Up to $49,720 for a family of 3
 - Up to $60,000 for a family of 4
- Depending on your household income, you may pay a family share, or co-pay.

See If You Can Get Child Care Assistance

Scan the QR code or visit bit.ly/RIchildcare to learn more.

Get Started with CCAP

The State of Rhode Island manages CCAP through the Rhode Island Department of Human Services (DHS). After you complete an application, the DHS team reviews your information to see if you qualify.

Have More Questions?

Visit www.dhs.ri.gov or call 1-855-MY-RIDHS (1-855-697-4347)
Monday – Friday 8:30AM-3:00PM except holidays.

Ready to apply for CCAP?

- Download the HealthyRhode mobile app, visit www.healthyrhode.ri.gov OR
- Fill out a DHS-2 application and put it in a secure drop box at a DHS office near you.

