Statement of Confidentiality

The applicant is hereby advised that, in compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, the strict confidentiality of all information and materials from any source in the consideration of this application shall be maintained, and these documents shall not be disclosed to anyone, except by action of the dean of the School with the provisions of the act and Rhode Island College policy. Once the admission process has been completed, the “educational records” only of enrolled students are forwarded to the Records Office and are available upon request to the student.

Statement of Nondiscrimination and Affirmative Action

Pursuant to the philosophy of the Board of Governors for Higher Education, Rhode Island College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, gender, religion, disability, age, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, marital, citizenship status or status as a special disabled veteran, recently separated veteran, Vietnam Era veteran, or any other veteran who served in active duty during a war or in a campaign or expedition for which a campaign badge has been authorized (except in those special circumstances permitted or mandated by law). This nondiscrimination policy encompasses the operation of the College’s educational programs and activities, including admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other College-administered programs. It also encompasses the employment of College personnel and contracting by the College for goods and services. The College is committed to taking affirmative action to employ and advance in employment qualified women and members of minority groups identified in state and federal affirmative action laws and executive orders, persons with disabilities including qualified special disabled veterans), and veterans of the Vietnam Era.
